

CFI. CFII. MEI

KURT JOHNSON

Kurt has always had a passion for Aviation. This might have been helped by the fact that his Dad flew P3s in the NAVY, and his Grandpa on both sides of the family flew in the military as well. Kurt started his flight training in the San Francisco Bay Area, and he now has CFI, CFII, and MEI ratings. His favorite thing about flying is that the views and the days are never the same. His long-term goal in aviation is to fly for the airlines or cargo but until then, he plans to instruct as much as he can!
